

TRANSPORTATION – technology

Digital advancements, connectivity, automation and AI are creating demands and supply of new opportunities in many industries. Here are some key technology trends for transport infrastructure.

# 1: Digitalization and AI

Digitalization and AI offer opportunities for better maintenance planning, increased coordination and optimization.

#2: Cybersecurity

More connected systems and increased automation of both private cars and freight transport pose risks to data security.